

Our History

A tradition of quality Christian education with over 85 years of history in the Columbus area, Worthington Adventist Academy builds on a strong foundation of biblical principles that nurture the whole person - mind, body, and spirit.

Our Beliefs

Seventh-day Adventist Church is a Protestant Christian Church. We believe:

God is our creator.

- Salvation comes through faith in Jesus Christ and His death and resurrection.
- The Bible is the word of God and God has given us invaluable instruction on how we can live happy, healthy lives.
- In worshiping on Saturday as Jesus did.
- The Second Advent of Jesus Christ and the promise of eternal life.

Student quotes:

"At school, we can talk about Jesus and pray."

"We like WAA so much that we drive 24 miles to get there."

"I love the Gingerbread man day."

"I have lots of friends at school. They love Jesus and are Christians like me."

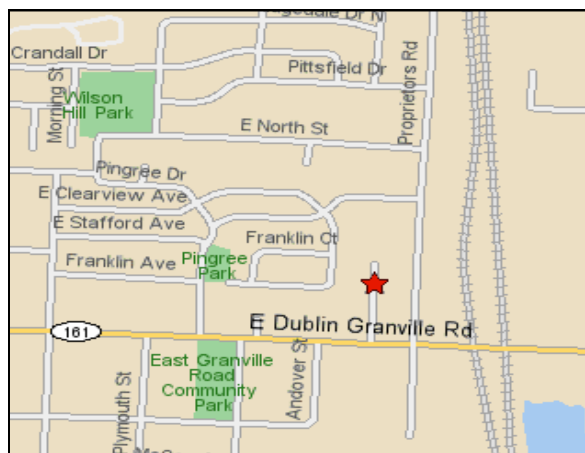

"I like recess, my friends...I like everything!"

"We are a small school teaching children about a big God."

The WAA Difference

The difference that WAA brings is our past and current practice of providing a solid academic, social, and spiritual environment for students. It is a place where teachers love to teach. Our faculty and staff want to help prepare students to be good citizens of their communities today, so they can be good citizens for eternity.

If you would like to have your child enrolled in a school that offers a warm accepting atmosphere, Worthington Adventist Academy may be the place for your child. Come visit WAA where your child can grow academically, socially, and spiritually un-

Parents' Quotes: Why I send my children to Worthington Adventist Academy

"I have wonderful memories of going to a Christian school myself—I want that for my children."

"I can go on and on about the small classes, individual learning opportunities and safe, loving environment. It doesn't feel like the normal sterile school environment. It feels like home!"

"Caring Christian teachers, low student to teacher ratios, and a well-rounded academic program are provided at a very attractive cost. We would recommend WAA to anyone."

"The school has a good educational foundation, a God-centered curriculum, and wonderful teachers."
